

WCSQM Student Character Campaign - Student of the Month

Student submission form

Student name: Ivie Nosakhare      Year group/form: 5      School name: Sneinton C of E Primary School

Instructions to teacher/school

Look through the completed sample form for ideas on how your students can prove any of the characteristics.

You can use copies of the form below or the sample form internally to work through the WCSQM characteristics framework with your students in any way you like.

However, to nominate for Student of the Month your student only needs to submit ONE characteristic on this form. You complete name etc. above and submit to info@worldclass-schools.org at any time. Please ensure you have sought full permissions for the information submitted to be shared publicly by WCSQM. Please include a photo of the nominated student with your submission – this will be featured on the WCSQM Hall of Fame if the student is successful in achieving Student of the Month.

Because of who we are, what we feel, and how we learn, we are #worldclass.

j...being a positive role model	Ivie has represented her school by speaking about her personal identity. Ivie spoke on stage to approx 100 school and church leaders at the Church Leaders Conference 2021 in November. During this speech, Ivie spoke about her personal identity, and what her experience of growing up in the UK has taught her. She also spoke confidentially about how this has made her who she is today. Ivie finished her speech by saying she would identify herself as a “strong Nigerian woman”. Ivie’s speech was inspirational to so many leaders who work in both education and in the church across the whole country. o...reading lots of different things.

Ivie loves reading and spoke about how this has become part of her identity in her speech to church leaders. In her speech, Ivie said
“As I grew up, I always saw my mum reading, even late in the night, and this encouraged me to read. We started going to the library every day to escape our very loud neighbours. This became our habit and the thing that kept us going. My mum never gave up as she wanted to make something out of our lives. Because I saw her study so hard, I also started to do the same. I read and read and read.”

	The more I read, the more I knew. Although we could not go on holidays to different places, through the books I read, I could visit any country I wanted to in my imagination. School helped me because they would take us on walks to the library, and allow us borrow books from school too. Sneinton is also a reading for pleasure school, and we get to access book swap (free books for us to take home!). We also have a very special reading festival too. One of our teaching assistants, Mrs Massey, also read with me all of the time when I was in Year 2, to help me to become a better reader. Learning these skills has helped me every day and will allow me to succeed throughout the whole of my life. Without the teachers at Sneinton, this wouldn't have been possible. p ... understand how mathematics, science and technology work in the real world
q... understanding about business and the world of work
r....how the world <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● works</li> <li>● is changing</li> <li>● is different in different countries and societies</li> </ul>	Ivie is passion about black history and black role models. She and was a runner up in a Transform Trust competition this year, ran across all schools in our Trust. In this, Ivie wrote about black role models and the impact they have had on society.
