a...inspire, encourage and recognise others

Emmanuella is an Ambassador for the school's Medical, Health and Social Care Academy, which involves speaking in public and liaising with other students in a variety of ways to encourage them in pursuing careers in Medicine and related disciplines. She is a friendly, inspirational and encouraging speaker with a welcoming and encouraging manner. In her own time she has set up and run a Politics Society in the school, chairing and moderating debates, promoting discussion, encouraging new

	members, enabling different contributors and administering the running of the sessions. b...know how to plan effectively	Emmanuella manages the demands of 4 A Levels alongside her role as Ambassador and her leading of the Politics Society. In her spare time, she volunteers at the local hospice shop with the express aim of serving her community. She is known to be reliable and to meet all her commitments, evidence of a strong capacity for effective planning. c...am efficient	See above – despite all the different commitments she juggles, Emmanuella is efficient and disciplined in the way she uses her time and delivers on whatever she has undertaken. Teachers describe her as diligent and hard-working. d...am fair, trustworthy and ethical	Emmanuella has a strong heart for justice and care in the community. She has a clear vocation for a career in Medicine as a way in which she can devote her life to serving others. She has served more than once as form representative, elected by her peers who have trusted her to represent them, and as Chapel Rep, which hints at the moral framework that underpins her involvement in the life of the school. In her A Level studies, her teachers describe her as “utterly dependable”. e...make effective decisions according to reliable evidence	Perhaps Emmanuella’s academic performance is relevant here: in Chemistry and Biology, her teachers single out her confidence in carrying out experimental and investigative activities, and her ability to extrapolate sound, ethically considered conclusions from the evidence she has gathered. f... set myself goals and targets that enable me to reach my potential	Emmanuella is an impressive, committed, compassionate young woman who is pursuing her ambition to study Medicine with energy and determination. She actively seeks out opportunities to improve herself and widen her experience and skill-set. She also displays impressive self-knowledge, aware of when she needs to devote some time to self-care, and she seeks creative outlets in painting and sewing .
